

Trends in Toponymy 6

Ruprecht-Karls-Universität Heidelberg (October 7th-10th 2013)

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

MONDAY, OCTOBER 7 th
8.00	REGISTRATION
9.00	OPENING
9.30	KEYNOTE 1: Staffan Nyström (Uppsala)
11.00	COFFEE BREAK
11.30	Joan Tort-Donada Towards an epistemology of the toponymy: On the problems concerning space and time in the geographical names
12.00	Eleanor Rye Using microtoponyms to investigate Viking-age language contact: an investigation of some minor names from the Wirral and Westmorland
12.30	Emily Pennifold Linguistic Survival: The condition of the Welsh language in the post-medieval border region
13.00	LUNCH
14.30	Erzsébet Györffy The toponymic knowledge of the individual and the community
15.00	César López Leiva Vegetation dynamic traits deduced from toponymic information: Some forests and shrublands in La Rioja (Spain)
15.30	Alberto Manco The ancient coronym Hirpinia (and the wolf), the italic "ethnic" Utiana (and the water): two new etymologies
16.00	COFFEE BREAK
16.30	Eva Kovács Typical ways of old Hungarian place naming
17.00	Alison Burns Narratives and landscapes in the collection of Aberdeenshire field-names
17.30	David Gerhardt Rise, use and fade of field-names

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 8th
9.00	KEYNOTE 2: Monica Barni (Siena)
10.30	COFFEE BREAK+ POSTER SESSION
11.00	Paula Sjöblom, Ulla Hakala, Satu-Päivi Kantola Municipality names and mergers: attitudes towards the changing name
11.30	Alina Bughesiu Linguistic landscape, microtoponymy and unconventional anthroponymy on the border: Vama Veche, Romania
12.00	Guy Puzey, Wilson McLeod, Rob Dunbar Attitudes to minority languages in the linguistic landscape: place names, corporate names and corporate identity
12.30	Riemer Reinsma Damsko and Agga: Multicultural toponymic nicknames in the Netherlands
13.00	LUNCH + POSTER SESSION
14.30	Pierre de la Robertie Toponyms in China: the case of Jinan City (Shandong)
15.00	Sanda Rapa Semantic transposition in the Latvian Toponymy
15.30	Serena Conte, Alessio Di Renzo, Giulia Petitta, Paolo Rossini, Virginia Volterra Sign language toponymy in Italy: synchronic and diachronic variation
16.00	COFFEE BREAK+ POSTER SESSION
16.30	Bruno Delaroche Toponyms in proverbs and idiomatic phrases: a comparative study of English, French and German
17.00	Stephan Fuchs An integrated approach to Germanic toponyms in the American Midwest
17.30	Jani Vuolteenaho Odonymic anomalies: mapping numerical street names in Europe
	CONFERENCE DINNER

POSTERS
	Carmela Auriemma The project Detia
	Philippe Hofmann Desert sites in the Sissach area – an onomastic input to the settlement history of the upper Basel area

Tiina Laansalu, Marja Kallasmaa, Marit Alas
Estonian village names of German origin

Beatrice Wiggerhauser
Is the usage of toponyms suitable for an intangible cultural heritage in terms of the UNESCO Convention?

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 9th

9.00	KEYNOTE 3: Lukas Loos (Heidelberg)
10.30	COFFEE BREAK
11.00	Bo Nissen Knudsen Narrowing the field. Adapting place-name editions to place-name databases and overcoming structural variation problems
11.30	Dunja Brozovic Roncevic Onomastica Croatica: Croatian onomastic database
12.00	Claudio Bozzini, Patrik Krebs, Marco Conedera Georeferencing toponymy with historical pictures
12.30	Michel Sauvant Place-names created in a controlled way
13.00	LUNCH
14.30	Leonie Dunlop Maps and written records: A theoretical approach to source material
15.00	Anna Tsepkova Language, culture and language learning: A dictionary of secondary toponymic nominations
15.30	Andrea Bölskei Challenges in updating the Hungarian terminology of geographical names standardization
16.00	COFFEE BREAK
16.30	Christine Kenison No man's land: Negotiations of Germanness in the Prussian East in Clara Viebig's "Das schlafende Heer"
17.00	Ojaars Buss, Renate Silina-Pinke 17th century map of Berzaune castle district (Latvia) as source of the research of the Latvian hydronymy: A case study
17.30	Dariush Borbor A toponymic based study of migration of the Kurds of Iran

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 10th

9.00	Patrick Jajko Street-names in Budapest and Vienna between 1918 and 1930
9.30	Anna Yunatska Soviet legacy and commemorative policy vs. historical value
10.00	Amy Todman What is a hill? Prototypicality in toponymic categorization of landscape features
10.30	COFFEE BREAK
11.00	Katalin Reszegi Cognitive approach in Hungarian toponymy
11.30	Aleh Kopach Three stages in the place naming process: a cognitive-onomasiological approach
12.00	Pavel Stepan The grammatical category of number in Czech toponymy
12.30	This Fetzer Military related names on the Swiss-Austrian-Liechtenstein border (Bündner Herrschaft area)
13.00	LUNCH
14.30	Barbara Bába Lexical topoformants in place names
15.00	Angela Bergermayer On endonym and exonym use for European cities and small towns in Austrian media since 1990
15.30	John Insley Place-names and historical dialectology in Lancashire
16.00	Arne Bölling Australian name-scapes